Alfred Stanley, brother of Ex-Gov. Stanley, was arrested in Little Washington a few days ago by Lieut. O'Brien. Stanley lived in the vicinity of Little

Washington, a mile and a half from town, and is a substantial and influential citizen of secesh proclivities. He seems to be sincere in his opinions, and is not inclined to let an opportunity slip to show his hatred of Yankees. He is reported to have passed our lines and denounced Union citizens in Kingston, thereby causing their arrest, and committed other acts in detriment of the interests of the government.

On his arrest, Stanley said he had done nothing but what he believed to be his duty, and would do it again. He is now in Washington jail.

A Fort Monroe letter to the Herald of the 17th, states that yesterday, four men in the uniform of rebel soldiers, arrived at Newport News. They proved to be four of our men, who had thus disguised themselves to facilitate their escape. They were captured July 18, in the first charge of our troops at Fort Wagner.

They state that for some time past four or five trains per day have been wash board, laid in a continuous line, The day of their departure the city was illuminated with camp fires and crowded with troops, all doubtless being hurried
